

By publicly posting the following written disclosure, the Rhode Island Health and Educational Building Corporation ( “RIHEBC” ) intends that market participants receive and use this notice for purposes of relying on the independent municipal advisor exemption to the Securities and Exchange Commission’s Municipal Advisor Rule.

RIHEBC is represented by Acacia Financial Group, Inc. (“Acacia”) as its municipal advisor. RIHEBC will rely on Acacia to provide advice on proposals from financial services firms concerning the issuance of municipal securities and municipal financial products, including investment of bond proceeds and escrow investments, as such terms are defined in the SEC’s Municipal Advisor Rule. Acacia has advised RIHEBC that it is an independent registered municipal advisor within the meaning of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 Rule 15Ba1-1(d)(3)(vi) (the “Rule”). Furthermore, Acacia represented to RIHEBC that neither Acacia nor any of its employees have been in the last two years an “associated person” with respect to any “broker dealers” within the meaning of the Rule. Should RIHEBC receive and consider advice, offers, or materials or municipal financial products in association with the issuance of debt, bond proceeds or municipal financial products, RIHEBC will share such items received with Acacia. Any advice, offers, materials or municipal financial products should be sent directly to RIHEBC’s Executive Director. Please note that an underwriter/financial services firm should not speak directly with, or send material or municipal financial products directly to Acacia unless specifically directed to by RIHEBC or mandated by regulatory requirement(s). This disclosure may be relied upon until September 25, 2022, unless removed from RIHEBC’s website prior to such date.

Dated: September 21, 2021
